The International Graduate Academy (IGA) offers 35 to 40 courses and workshops per semester in German and English to provide doctoral candidates transdisciplinary further qualifications. The courses teach core competencies and transferable skills in six areas: Management and Communication, Media and Data Processing, Career Planning and Career Entry, Higher Education Teaching and Learning, Practical Orientation, and Languages.

These courses are open to all doctoral candidates at the university and are free of charge for students planning to earn their doctorate in Freiburg. A complete description of the participation requirements may be found here.

Application form

The screenshot shows the 'Applying - IGA Uni Freiburg' page in a Mozilla Firefox browser. The page header includes the UNI FREIBURG logo and the International Graduate Academy (Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg) name. The main content area is titled 'Applying' and contains a welcome message and a list of instructions for applicants. A red circle highlights the 'Application for Individual Funding' section, which includes links for 'Initial application', 'Application for continued funding (12th - 24th month of funding)', 'Application for extension (25th - 36th month)', and 'Application for completion scholarship'.

Applying

Dear applicant,

Welcome to the electronic application for scholarship funding based on the Landesgraduiertenförderungsgesetz (LOFG). Please consider the following advice in order to make the application process as easy as possible for you:

- The electronic application form cannot be saved during the process steps.
- The Button "Back" only works if all data is input to the current site.
- Please have certificates, school reports and contracts of employment ready since information from those is needed.
- Please check your data on the concluding wizard page and change them if necessary. Click "Send Application" to send it to the IGA.

As soon as we receive your electronic application an e-mail will be send to you with the application attached as PDF. Please sign this document and send it to the stated address with the rest of the application documents. You will find further information on the necessary application documents in the IGA Wiki.

Thank you for your application and good luck!

Stefanie Bussenius
