

Time Management

Target group

Doctoral candidates and postdoctoral researchers of all disciplines. Postdoctoral researchers in the faculty of medicine cannot participate in the workshop.

Goals

- Clarification of direction and motivation (What am I working on and why?)
- Know how to use powerful time planning methods
- Know how to balance professional and private life
- Know how to control your inner state using concentration and relaxation techniques
- Exchange of experiences with other participants

Content

Fundamental requirements for good time management during your research project:

- Making decisions and developing initiative
- Is my research topic small enough: What exactly do I want to examine?
- How can I motivate myself on the path to completing it? What does this path look like?

Strategies for efficient and effective use of time

- Time planning and the research project: master plan, weekly and daily planning
- Setting priorities (Eisenhower Method, Pareto Principle)
- Finding your balance: research project – job – private life
- Getting rid of time-killers
- Using high concentration techniques (silent hour, Pomodoro Technique)
- Controlling your inner state through relaxation techniques

Methods

Trainer input; individual, partner, and group work; written and creative focusing exercises; relaxation exercises; guided and free sequences in which participants can develop images; brief presentations by participants; group reflection.
